SPRING FESTIVAL

A Spring Festival concert was presented last Thursday evening at the Old Rochester Regional High School auditorium by the students of the Mattapoisett Center School, Sippican School, Marion and Rochester Memorial School.

The program opened with selections by the regional elementary band directed by Zavan Mazmanian, music teacher at the high school.

Mrs. Rhona Blasdale, supervisor of instrumental and vocal music, Rochester and Marion and instrumental, Mattapoisett, directed an orchestra, comprised of students from the three towns, in several selections.

A combined vocal group from Marion and Rochester rendered several numbers directed by Mrs. Blasdale. Mrs. Helen Winslow, supervisor of vocal music, Mattapoisett, directed a fifth grade chorus and a sixth grade chorus from Mattapoisett in several selections.

The program concluded with the playing and singing of The Star Spangled Banner.

Mrs. Winslow, resigning after 14 years at Center School, was honored with the gift of a framed testimonial, presented by Linwood C. Lewis, chairman of the Mattapoisett School Committee. The testimonial was signed by School Committee members, Lewis, Marshall W. Ross and David Goodenough.

Also assisting in the program were Mrs. Anne A. Gonsalves, instructor of instrumental music, Marion and Rochester, and Mrs. Helen R. Tibbetts, accompanist. Mrs. Blasdale, Mrs. Winslow and Mrs. Gonsalves received bouquets of red roses and white babies breath, and Mr. Mazmanian, a button hole flower. They were presented by John R. Moynihan, principal of Center School.

Usherettes were Martha Eilertson, Paula Delano, Ruth Rebello, Gail Wood, Leslie Tuttle, Patricia McCombe and Peggy Thompson. Color bearers were Jeffrey Gingras, Sherman Briggs, Douglas Monteiro and Jeffrey Parker.

Grange Sears Roebuck progress program and shade trees are on the agenda. Mrs. Ruby Barber, chairman of the Home and Community Service, completed filling in around the tree after John Denham had planted it.

Another tree was planted on the Grange grounds to replace one that was ruined by one of the storms This also was part of the Home and Community work.

Work will soon be started on the Grange yard. Through the kindness and interest of Mrs. Alexander Barrie whose great talent in landscaping has added beauty to the Grange building with the beautiful evergreens she has planted there. The members of the Grange are deeply grateful to her.

WOMAN'S CLUB ANNUAL MEETING

A buffet luncheon preceded the annual meeting and election of officers of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club held last Thursday in the Congregational Church parish hall. Bouquets of white and lavender lilacs decorated the tables. Mrs. Leonard Burnham presided and introduced the members at the head table: Mrs. Marshall Ross, third vice-president of the State Federation and a charter member of the Mattapoisett club; Mrs. Frank Oxnard, first vice-president of the club; Mrs. Real Breton, second vice-president; Mrs. Howard Logan, recording secretary; Mrs. Leonard Randall, treasurer; Mrs. Frederick Reynard, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Albert Furnans, chairman of the luncheon.

The invocation was given by Mrs. Charles Smith. Mrs. Oxnard, delegate to the annual meeting of the State Federation, gave a detailed report of this meeting. Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Burnham both spoke briefly of club work. The secretary gave an annual report compiled from the department and committee chairmen. The annual report of the treasurer and auditor was given.

Mrs. Burnham was reelected president. Other officers are Mrs. Oxnard, first vice-president; Mrs. Howard Logan, recording secretary; Mrs. Frederick Reynard, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Robert Smith, treasurer; and Mrs. Ernest Roberts, federation secretary. They were inducted

MEMORIAL DAY

Mattapoisett observed Memorial Day Monday afternoon with appropriate exercises at the Town Library, the monument adjacent to the library, the town wharf and Cushing Cemetery.

The program at the library included selections by the Portuguese American Band, a prayer by Rev. Father John F. Sullivan, S.S. C.C., assistant pastor, St. Anthony's Church, Mattapoisett; the Gettysburg Address by Louis Marcosa, a student at Old Rochester Regional High School.

Lt. Col. Robert V. Mitchell, Com. 951 AEW & C Squd., Otis Air Force Base, was the guest speaker.

His address was a thought provoking presentation of the beginnings and the preservation of freedom. He said that it is not enough to depend upon our military strength in missiles, atomic power and the other machinery of defense. The strength of this country, he said, is not in our weapons but instead in the moral fiber of our people. We must not only think freedom, desire freedom but we must deserve freedom. Lt. Col. Mitchell quoted from the liberty Bell, from our greatest patriots. Thomas Jefferson, he said, declared that freedom belongs to those who will defend it.

Following exercises at the monument, the parade formed, led by parade marshalls, Major Charles Morgan and Major George White. Included in the line of march were Mattapoisett Selectmen William J. Spark, Jr. and David N. Haley, Florence Eastman Post 280 American Legion members and auxiliary members, members of Marion VFW, the Portuguese American band, Girl Scouts, Brownies, Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts.

Refreshments were served to all marchers at Legion Hall, Depot Street, following the parade. The firing squad and colors visited all other cemeteries in town after the dismissal of the parade.
